And Much Understanding

The '74 Specter Is Dedicated To A Very Special Person, Mrs. Cindy Saunders.

Seller of basketball tickets . . .
Baker of cakes for winning teams
. . . Giver of rides to students . . .
Advisor to our advisor . . . Teacher of English . . . Supporter of the Saints . . . Listener to students' problems and thoughts . . . Booster of school spirit . . . Player of jokes on other teachers . . . Tireless donor of time and energy . . .
Someone who shares and cares . . .
Someone whose contributions are too numerous to mention and we would like to thank her for everything she has done.

School Is . . . Homework, Bomb Scares,

Blow in my ear, and I'll follow you anywhere!

My girdle is killing me!

Coach Meredith and "The Troops"

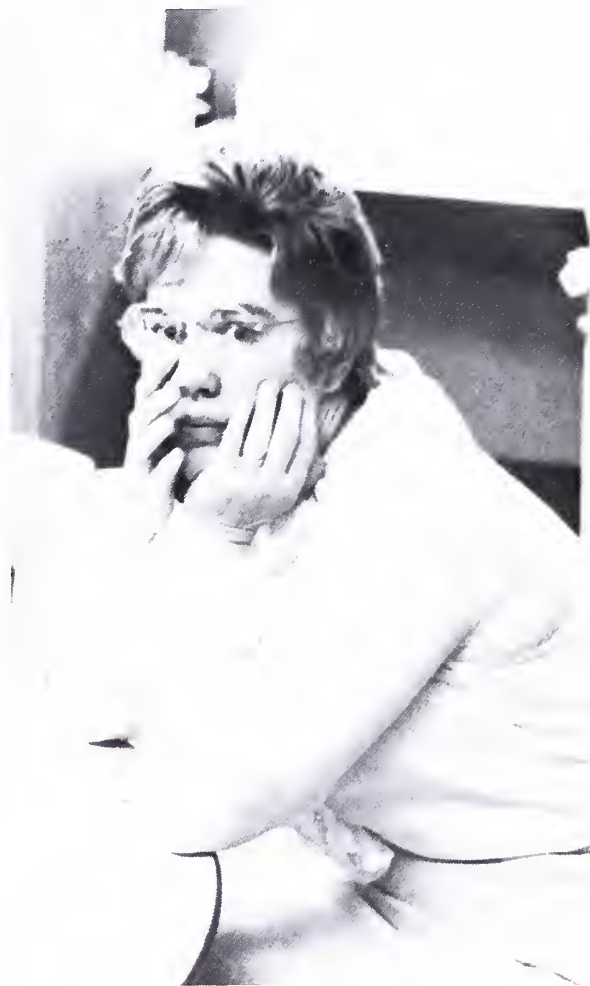

The Salem Sit-In

And Hamburgers For Lunch

These faculty meetings are so interesting!!

Oh please, not three days!?!

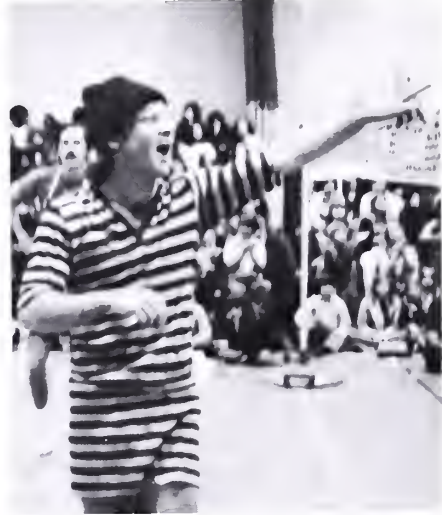

I'll do anything to keep from eating those lunches!

Candid Camera Close-Ups . . .

Does Ford really have a better idea?

And which prison did you come from?

Business as usual.

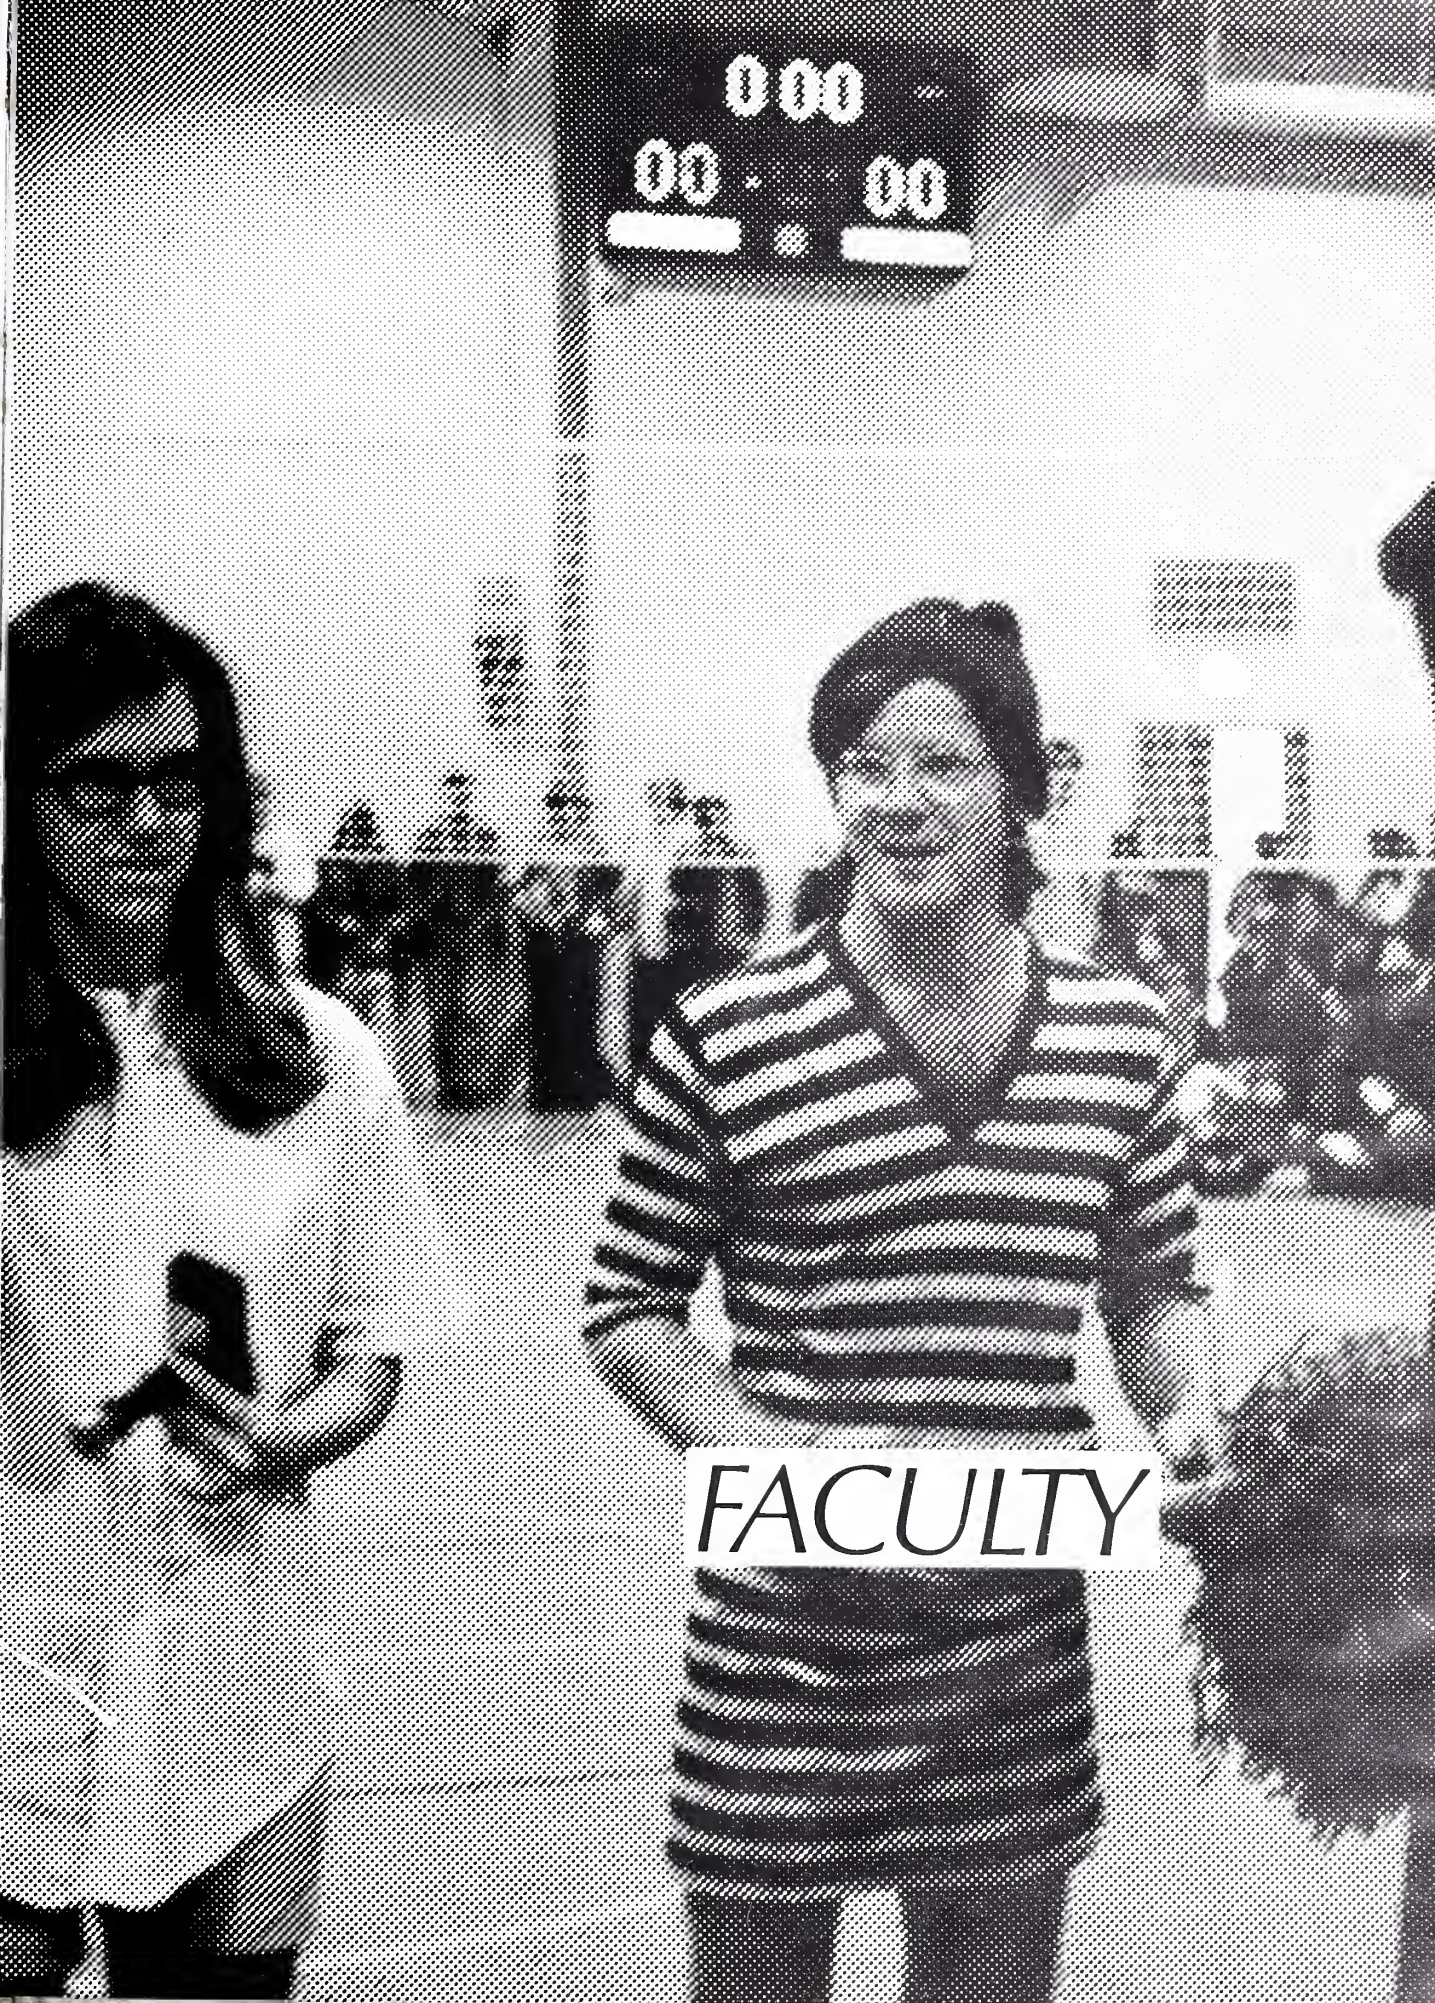

Okay--where's the football?

Cheeeeeeeeeesse!!!

Parting Shots...

See--No gum!!

Why no, Mr. Saltz, we weren't smoking!

"Come on and take a free ride!"

I know the chalk was here a minute ago!

Nine o'clock and all's well.

Now, do I look like I've done anything wrong?

to a very interesting and unusual person.
